The Commission was originally appointed by the Governor in 1971 as the Commission on the Concerns of Spanish-Speaking People. It was renamed the Governor's Commission on Hispanic Affairs in 1978.

The Commission advises the Governor, the General Assembly, and agencies within the Executive Department on matters relating to the Hispanic peoples of Maryland. It works with the Hispanic population, community leaders, private groups, and agencies of State and local government to serve and represent the State's Hispanic population.

The Commission consists of five ex officio members and fifteen members appointed to three-year terms by the Governor.
