The Commission was created in 1966 as the Maryland Educational-Cultural Television Commission (Chapter 202, Acts of 1966). In 1967, it was reestablished as the Maryland Educational-Cultural Broadcasting Commission (Chapter 645, Acts of 1967). The Commission was renamed the Maryland Public Broadcasting Commission in 1969 (Chapter 405, Acts of 1969). The Commission was created to develop, operate, and maintain a system of State, regional, and local facilities for educational and cultural television and radio programming throughout Maryland.

The Commission consists of eleven members appointed by the Governor for five-year terms. Two members are designated by the State Board of Education. One member is the State Superintendent of Schools. Members are chosen because of their interest in public education, libraries, art, music, drama, higher education, the television and radio
