The Rental Housing Resource Corporation was established in 1985 as a nongovernmental entity to stimulate the construction and rehabilitation of low-income rental housing in the State (Chapter 732, Acts of 1985). The Corporation operates a special fund that consists of interest money earned on trust accounts held by real estate licensees or on escrow accounts held by vendors or builders of new houses, and grants, donations, and federal funds. The Corporation is exempt from State and local taxes.

The Corporation is governed by a board of directors whose members are appointed by the Governor to three-year terms. The eleven voting members of the board consist of licensees, representatives of non-profit and low-income housing organizations, and the general public. The Secretary of Housing and Community Development (or designee) serves ex officio as a non-voting member (Code Financial Institutions Article, secs. 13-601 through 13-614).

St. Mary's College of Maryland was originally chartered as St. Mary's Seminary in 1839 (Chapter 190, Acts of 1839). In 1845 it was incorporated as St. Mary's Female Seminary (Chapter 257, Acts of 1845). The College received its present name in 1964 (Chapter 59, Acts of 1964).

An accredited junior college for many years, St. Mary's became a four-year college of liberal arts and sciences in 1967. It is the only four-year institution in the State college system devoted exclusively to the liberal arts. Fall 1986 enrollment at St. Mary's was 1,396 (F.T.E. 1,354), consisting of 1,192 full-time and 204 part-time students.

The College is governed by a board of fifteen trustees appointed to six-year terms by the Governor.
