

The Authority is a public corporation of Maryland and may issue tax-exempt bonds for financing its operations. Proceeds from the sale of Authority bonds and revenues collected or received from any other source, including a tax on gate receipts at the facility, are deposited in the Maryland Stadium Authority Financing Fund. The Fund is a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of the Authority.

The Authority consists of five members appointed to four-year terms by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Governor designates the chairperson. With the approval of the Governor, the Authority appoints the executive director, who serves at its pleasure.

Authorization for the Authority continues until June 30, 1989, at which time it will expire unless the Authority has entered into a long-term lease with the Baltimore Orioles or a professional football franchise (Code Financial Institutions Article, secs. 13-701 through 13-722).
