

supervises the activities of the State Investment Agency on behalf of the Board of Trustees. The Council reviews all investment programs to ensure compliance with established policy. The Council prepares and periodically updates an operations manual detailing the functions of the Investment Council, the goals and objectives of the several investment programs, and the policies governing investment selection and retention. The Agency may commingle assets of the several pension systems, provided that it maintains records of the percentage participation of each system in any investment.

The Council consists of nine members. Six are appointed by the Board of Trustees from among its membership for four-year terms, one each representing the Employees' System, the Teachers' System, the State Police System, and three of whom are appointed or ex officio trustees. Three public members are appointed by the Board of Trustees with the approval of the Board of Public Works for four-year terms. Public members may not be members or beneficiaries of any of the pension systems and must have experience in the management and control of large investment funds. The Board of Trustees annually designates the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the Investment Council (Code 1957, Art. 73B, sec. 161).

The State's Attorneys' Coordination Council was created by Chapter 710, Acts of 1977. The same act established the office of State's Attorneys' Coordinator. The Coordinator is selected by and serves at the pleasure of the Council.

The State's Attorneys' Coordinator has the responsibility to establish and implement standard and specialized training programs and provide materials for State's Attorneys and their professional staffs, as well as to provide and coordinate continuing legal education programs and services for them. With the approval of the Council, he establishes and implements uniform reporting procedures for State's Attorneys and their staffs and meets and confers regularly with the Attorney General, the State's Attorneys, and the State's Attorneys' Coordination Council. The Coordinator also serves as a liaison between Maryland's State's Attorneys and local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies and organizations.

Annually, the State's Attorneys' Coordinator reports to the Governor, the Attorney General, the General Assembly, the State's Attorneys' Coordination Council, and the Maryland State's Attorneys' Association. The State's Attorneys' Coordination Council annually submits to the Governor a consolidated budget for the office of State's Attorneys' Coordinator.

The Coordinator's Office publishes a bi-monthly newsletter, The Maryland Prosecutor, as well as specialized manuals on subjects of concern to Maryland prosecutors.

The State's Attorneys' Coordination Council is composed of eleven members. These include the
