At least every two years, the Council reviews the vocational-technical education programs that receive aid from the federal Perkins Vocational Education Act and the Job Training Partnership Act and makes recommendations to the State Board of Education on their coordination. The Council also is required biennially to report findings and recommendations from its evaluation to the Governor, the State Board of Education, the Governor's Employment and Training Council, the U.S. Secretary of Education, and the U.S. Secretary of Labor.

Appointed by the Governor, the Council consists of thirteen members who serve three-year terms (Code Education Article, secs. 21-101 through 21-106).

OFFICE ON VOLUNTEERISM

Director: Wanda M. Schloeder

301 W. Preston St., Room 1511
Baltimore 21201 Telephone: 225-4805

Created in 1986, the Office on Volunteerism encourages volunteer work throughout the State by individuals, businesses, and non-profit organizations (Chapter 13, Acts of 1986). The Office promotes the use of volunteers in State and local government. For volunteers and projects in State, the Office develops and implements model programs for statewide clearinghouses, skill banks, or information centers.

The Office maintains liaison with national and state volunteerism groups. It also studies and recommends improvements in volunteer recruitment and training, volunteer retention, and accountability of volunteer programs. The Office is headed by a Director, appointed by the Governor.

The Office administers the Maryland Service Corps Program and the Maryland Executive Fellows Program (Code State Government Article, secs. 9-1301 through 9-1310).

In June 1984, the Governor created this commission to administer the Maryland Executive Fellows Program (Executive Order 01.01.1984.05). In 1986, the Program and Commission became part of the Office on Volunteerism (Chapter 13, Acts of 1986).

The Maryland Executive Fellows Program represents a new partnership between State government and the private sector. It affords the opportunity for a select group of professionals from Maryland business and industrial firms, colleges and universities, the professions, and the arts to work at the highest levels of State government. The State officials for whom Executive Fellows
