

work receive the benefit of the talent, insight, and creative perspective brought to the affairs of State by these people.

The Commission devises programs and proceedings to recruit, select, and assign Executive Fellows, and establishes salary guidelines for them. It appoints a selection panel to recommend candidates from whom the Commission chooses Fellows. Fellows begin their one-year assignments annually on July 1.

Appointed by the Governor, the Commission consists of five members from the Maryland business community, three from departments of State government, and one from Maryland colleges and universities. The Governor designates the chairperson (Code State Government Article, sec. 9-1306).

MARYLAND SERVICE CORPS

James C. Thomson, Jr., Director

301 W. Preston St.
Baltimore 21201

Telephone: 225-4803

The Maryland Service Corps was created in 1972 within the Department of Employment and Social Services (Chapter 354, Acts of 1972). The Corps became part of the Department of Human Resources in 1975 (Chapter 382, Acts of 1975). In 1986, the Corps was transferred to the Office on Volunteerism (Chapter 13, Acts of 1986).

The Corps promotes and supports a statewide program of voluntarism and citizen participation that strengthens the capability of public and private non-profit agencies to provide certain services.

The Corps facilitates volunteer recruitment and training and, through agreements with host agencies, places volunteers directly with county departments of social services, health departments, commissions on aging, community action programs, and a variety of other programs. The Corps also provides technical assistance to agencies in order to enhance the quality and effectiveness of voluntarism and citizen participation in Maryland. This assistance includes the development and presentation of workshops and conferences, as well as the development and distribution of resource material relating to special issues and interests in the field of voluntarism.

Established in 1782, Washington College is a coeducational liberal arts and sciences college (Chapter 8, Acts of April Session 1782). The College is governed by a board named The Visitors and Governors of Washington College in the State of Maryland. The board consists of thirty-seven members. The Governor appoints twelve members. Alumni of the College elect twelve additional members, and the Board of Visitors and Governors itself selects another twelve. The final member is the College President, who is elected by the Board. Members serve six-year terms (Chapter 594, Acts of 1986).
