

BISHOP L. ROBINSON, Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, 1987— Born in Baltimore, Maryland, January 16, 1927. Attended Frederick Douglass High School; University of Baltimore, B.S., 1971; Coppin State College, M.Ed., 1973; University of Baltimore, J.D., 1986. Southern Police Institute, certificate, 1969; National Executive Institute, certificate, 1984. Served in U.S. Army, 1945-46. Police Commissioner, Baltimore City, 1984-87. Member, Maryland Chiefs of Police; Major Cities Chiefs Association; National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE); National "State of the Art" Law Enforcement Planning Committee, U.S. Department of Justice; International Association of Chiefs of Police. Recipient of numerous civic and superior public service awards. Office address: 6776 Reisterstown Rd., Suite 310, Baltimore, MD 21215.

JACQUELINE H. ROGERS, Secretary of Housing and Community Development, 1987— Attended University of California at Santa Barbara, B.A., 1963; Yale University, M.A., 1965, Ph.D., 1972. Woodrow Wilson Scholar, 1963-64. Director, Montgomery County Office of Community Development, 1976-79. Acting Director, Montgomery County Office of Housing, 1979. Director, Montgomery County Department of Housing and Community Development, 1980. Director, Montgomery County Office of Management and Budget, 1980-87. Responsible for first budget ever to receive recognition for excellence in two categories simultaneously from the Government Finance Officers Association (FY 1986). Member, Governor's Task Force on State Support to Volunteer Fire Services, 1983-84. Past president, vice-president, and board member of the National Association of Counties, Community Development Director's Affiliate. Recipient, numerous professional honors and awards. Adjunct Professor, University of Maryland Graduate School of Public Affairs, 1986. Office address: 45 Calvert St., Annapolis, MD 21401.

EARL F. SEBODA, Secretary of General Services, 1983— Born in Baltimore, Maryland, August 10, 1938. Graduated from the University of Maryland, B.S. (mechanical engineering), 1961; attended Rutgers University, 1965; Stevens Institute of Technology, 1966-67; The Johns Hopkins University, 1967-69; University of Baltimore, 1984-86. Served in the U.S. Navy, lieutenant, 1961-65. Mechanical engineer. Member, U.S. Naval Institute; American Institute of Plant Engineers; Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc. (BOCA); Maryland Society of Professional Engineers (MSPE). Community College of Baltimore faculty (part-time), 1973-77. Project engineer, E. I. DuPont Company, 1965-67; plant engineer, National Brewing Company, 1967-68. Building engineer, Department of Budget and Fiscal Planning, 1968-71. Chief, Capital Budget, Engineering and Maintenance, Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, 1971-77. Assistant Secretary, Department of General Services, 1977-83. Office address: 301 W. Preston St., Baltimore, MD 21201.

JOSEPH L. SHILLING, State Superintendent of Schools, 1988— Born in New Windsor, Maryland, July 25, 1937. Western Maryland College, B.S., 1960; University of Maryland, College Park, M.Ed., 1965; Ph.D., 1984. Teacher and Administrator, Carroll County Public Schools, 1961-71. Superintendent of Schools, Dorchester County, 1971-77. Deputy State Superintendent of Schools, 1977-85. Director, Eastern Shore of Maryland Educational Consortium, 1985-87. Executive Director, Governor's School Enhancement Project, 1987-88. Recipient, Joseph R. Bailer Award from Western Maryland College for Distinguished Career in Education, 1985; Research Award, Maryland Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, 1983; Service Above Self Award, Cambridge Rotary, 1975. Member, American Association of School Administrators; American Association of School Business Officials; American Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development; Council of Chief State School Officers; The Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers; and numerous other State educational and professional organizations. Office address: 200 W. Baltimore St., Baltimore, MD 21201.

