James Backas, Executive Director

Charles Camp, State Folklorist

15 W. Mulberry St.
Baltimore, MD 21201 333-2778

In conformity with provisions of the National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities, the Maryland State Arts Council originated as the Governor's Council on the Arts in Maryland, established by Executive Order in 1966. The Maryland State Arts Council was created by statute in 1967 (Chapter 644, Acts of 1967). Formerly under the Department of Economic and Community Development, the Council became part of the Department of Economic and Employment Development in 1987 (Chapter 311, Acts of 1987).

The Council assists artists and arts organizations throughout the State and designs new or expanded arts programs. The Council makes grants to individual artists, arts organizations, and county arts councils. It also conducts programs of its own: Slide Registry of Maryland Visual Artists, Fine Arts in Public Places Program, Artists in Education Program, Arts Facility Assistance Program, and State Folklife Program.

Annually, the Council receives a National Endowment for the Arts grant for program support.

The Council consists of fifteen members. Thirteen are appointed to three-year terms by the Governor in consultation with the Secretary of Economic and Employment Development. Two are members of the General Assembly: one appointed by the Senate President and one by the House

Speaker. Council members are chosen because of their participation in civic, educational, and professional organizations concerned with or engaged in the production of the performing, visual or creative arts. Members must also represent all geographic sections of the State (Code 1957, Art. 83A, secs. 6-501 through 6-509).

333-6627

The Advisory Commission on Sports was created within the Department of Economic and Employment Development in 1988 (Chapter 11, Acts of 1988). The Commission investigates and collects information relating to the economic, fiscal and social effects of amateur and professional sports franchises in Maryland. The Commission also encourages the promotion and development of amateur and professional sports in the State. In addition, the Commission serves as an advisory board to the Secretary of Economic and Employment Development.

The Commission's seventeen members are appointed to three-year terms by the Governor in consultation with the Secretary of Economic and Employment Development. Six members represent amateur and professional sports in Maryland; three represent State and local government; and four represent the public. Two members are State Senators, selected by the Senate President and two are members of the House of Delegates chosen by the House Speaker. The Governor designates the chairperson and vice-chairperson (Code 1957, Art. 83A, secs. 4-401 through 4-406).
