ADMINISTRATIONS

AIR MANAGEMENT ADMINISTRATION

George P. Ferreri, Director

2500 Broening Highway
Baltimore, MD 21224 631-3255

Formerly under the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, the Air Management Administration was transferred to the Department of the Environment in 1987 (Chapter 306, Acts of 1987). The Administration develops and implements programs for cleaner air. To this end, the Administration devises air resources management plans and program strategies. It develops and enforces regulations for control of emissions from stationary and other sources. A comprehensive air monitoring system is maintained statewide by the Administration in order to institute regular and emergency procedures for control of ambient pollutant levels.

The Administration works through three programs: Policy Analysis and Program Development; Engineering and Enforcement; and Technical Services. The Air Quality Control Advisory Council and the Environmental Noise Advisory Council support the Administration's work.

The Air Quality Control Advisory Council originated as the Air Pollution Control Council in 1963 (Chapter 806, Acts of 1963). It received its present name in 1967 (Chapter 143, Acts of 1967). Formerly under the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, the Council was placed within the Department of the Environment in 1987 (Chapter 306, Acts of 1987). The Council advises the Department on rules and regulations to control air pollution.

The Council consists of not more than fifteen members appointed by the Secretary of the Environment. Three members represent the general public. Additional members include a physician; a professional engineer chosen from a list submitted by the Baltimore section, American Society of Chemical Engineers; a chemical engineer chosen from a list submitted by the Maryland section, American Institute of Chemical Engineers; and two persons employed in a manufacturing or public utility business in Maryland chosen from a list submitted by the Maryland Chamber of Commerce. One member belongs to and is recommended by the Regional Planning Council. One member is appointed from a list submitted by the Maryland Association of Counties. Four members are selected, one each from lists submitted by the Chancellor, University of Maryland System; President, The Johns Hopkins University; President, Maryland State-District of Columbia AFL-CIO; and Chairperson, Board of Directors, Council of Governments of Metropolitan Washington. Terms of members are five years, except for the Regional Planning Council representative whose term coincides with membership on that council (Code Environment Article, secs. 2-201 through 2-206).
