CLIFTON T. PERKINS HOSPITAL CENTER

Stephen Siebert, M.D., Acting Superintendent

P.O. Box 1000
Dorsey Run Road
Jessup, MD 20794 792-4022

The Clifton T. Perkins Hospital Center was established in 1959 as Maximum Security Hospital (Chapter 814, Acts of 1959). It adopted its present name in 1960. The Center provides treatment programs within a setting of maximum security.

The Center receives patients referred by the courts of Maryland for pretrial psychiatric evaluation. It provides a residence for individual offenders who have been found not guilty by reason of insanity, as well a hospital for prisoners who become mentally ill and require involuntary psychiatric hospitalization. From other State psychiatric hospitals, the Center also accepts patients whose illness requires maximum security treatment for a period of time. The Center is funded to serve an average daily population of 250 patients (Code Health—General Article, sec. 10-406).
