Baltimore, MD 21201 225-5600

The Community Services Advisory Commission was created within the Developmental Disabilities Administration in 1986 (Chapter 797, Acts of 1986). The Commission formulates and annually updates a five-year plan to improve community services and programs for developmentally disabled persons. The plan includes alternative ways and means to finance and expand services and programs.

The Commission consists of thirteen members. They include the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene, or designee; Secretary of Budget and Fiscal Planning, or designee; Director of the Developmental Disabilities Administration; a representative of the State Department of Education; a member of the State Senate appointed by the President; and a member of the House of Delegates appointed by the Speaker. The Governor appoints to the Commission two representatives from organizations that provide community program services, two from the financial community, two from advocacy-related organizations, and one from the general public (Code Health—General Article, sec. 7-204).
