The Department of Housing and Community Development was formed in 1987 (Chapter 311, Acts of 1987). When the Department of Economic and Community Development was abolished in 1987, its responsibilities for housing and community development were assigned to the Department of Housing and Community Development.

The Department works to provide better housing for people of limited income, foster more livable neighborhoods and communities, and promote Maryland's heritage and traditions.

Department programs are organized under four Divisions: Housing Finance (Community Development Administration); Housing Insurance (Maryland Housing Fund); Community Assistance; and Historical and Cultural Programs. Within the Division of Historical and Cultural Programs are the Commission on Afro-American History and Culture, the Maryland Ethnic Heritage Commission, the Commission on Indian Affairs, the St. Mary's City Commission, and the Maryland Historical Trust (Code 1957, Art. 83B, secs. 1-101 through 8-203).

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

The Secretary of Housing and Community Development is chief executive officer of the Department. Appointed by the Governor with Senate advice and consent, the Secretary sets policy, promulgates rules and regulations, and determines the strategies to fulfill the Department's mandate. The Secretary is responsible for the budget of the Department and the budgets of the boards, commissions, and offices under its jurisdiction.

The Secretary is assisted in administering the Department by the Deputy Secretary. The Deputy Secretary is appointed by the Secretary with the approval of the Governor.
