

The Division's hearing officers conduct administrative hearings to determine appropriate action to take against errant drivers, business firms, and others who violate State motor vehicle laws. The Division suspends, revokes, and restricts driving privileges on the basis of a driver's refusal to take chemical tests, alcohol-related convictions, and other convictions resulting from motor vehicle law violations. The Division also administers Maryland's participation with forty other states in the Driver License Compact (one license, one record).

The Mass Transit Administration was created as part of the Department of Transportation in 1970 (Chapter 526, Acts of 1970). The Administration originated as the Metropolitan Transit Authority, established in 1961 (Chapter 670, Acts of 1961) and reformed in 1969 (Chapter 160, Acts of 1969).

As the public transportation arm of the Department, the Mass Transit Administration operates and maintains the public bus system and is responsible for the development, construction, and operation of the Baltimore Metro and planned Central Light Rail Line. The Administration's metropolitan service area encompasses Anne Arundel County, Baltimore City, and Baltimore County. Commuter bus service also has begun to link Howard and Harford Counties to Baltimore City. In addition, the Administration provides technical and financial assistance to develop or improve public transportation in small urban areas throughout the State (Code Transportation Article, secs. 7-101 through 7-706).

Mass Transit Administration functions are carried out by six Divisions: Communications; Transit Development; Human Resources; Management Analysis and Programs; Finance; and Transit Operations.
