

Larry Braziel; Phillip Chenier; Roy Lee Hilton; Pat Kelly; Scott Manning; James Mutscheller; Sherman Plunkett; Jesse Thomas.

321 Fallsway
Baltimore, MD 21202

333-6772

The Governor created the Maryland Professional Athletes Council in March 1985 (Executive Order 01.01.1985.06). The Council's program enables young people in Agency facilities to interact with professional athletes. Through this program, young people can participate in a range of activities designed to enhance their self-esteem and sense of accomplishment. The program also helps foster personal relationships among participants, cooperation, and discipline.

Appointed by the Governor, the Council consists of not more than thirty members who serve four-year terms.

BUDGET AND MANAGEMENT DIVISION

Ruth Roberts Webbon, Deputy Director

333-6870

The Budget and Management Division was formed in 1987.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS DIVISION

Ben Jones, Deputy Director

333-6767

The Community Programs Division was created in 1987. The Division works to secure residential group homes with individualized day programs for adjudicated delinquents. The Division also is responsible for two youth detention facilities that are owned by the State but operated by private contractors. These facilities are the O'Farrell Center in Carroll County and the Doncaster Facility in Charles County.

DIRECT CARE SERVICES DIVISION

Harry Langmead, Deputy Director

333-6773

Formerly the Court Services Division, the Direct Care Services Division was reorganized under its present name in 1988.

The Division provides intake, probation and aftercare services for delinquent youths. Through intake services, the Division decides for which juveniles court proceedings would be appropriate. The Division also determines whether or not youths who do not go to court should be placed on probation or committed to a State institution. The Division supervises delinquent youths during probation and after their release from a State institution.

INSTITUTION AND DETENTION SERVICES DIVISION

Charles J. Kehoe, Deputy Director

333-6772

The Institution and Detention Services Division was created in 1987. The Division oversees the Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School, and four detention centers for juveniles awaiting trial. These detention centers are Boys' Village of Maryland; J. DeWeese Carter Center; Alfred D. Noyes Children's Center; and Thomas J. S. Waxter Children's Center. The Division also is responsible for youth centers for older boys committed by the court. In addition, the Division oversees residential programs in Baltimore City for youth committed by the court. These programs include the Maryland Youth Residence Center; Patterson House (Girls' Group Home); and Group Home for Boys.

CHARLES H. HICKEY, JR. SCHOOL

John Zachariah, Superintendent

2400 Cub Hill Road
Baltimore, MD 21234

668-3300

The Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School originated in 1850 as the House of Refuge (Chapter 374, Acts of 1850). In 1910, it was renamed Maryland School for Boys. The School became Maryland Training School for Boys in 1918 (Chapter 300, Acts of 1918). In 1985, the School was renamed after Charles H. Hickey, Jr., who served as Sheriff of Baltimore County from 1974 to 1984 (Chapter 245, Acts of 1985).

The School serves as a detention center for youth awaiting trial and as a training school for youth committed by the court. The School cares for and trains delinquent boys between the ages of fifteen and seventeen (Code 1957, Art. 83C, sec. 2-117).

CHARLES H. HICKEY, JR. SCHOOL CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Chairperson: Philip J. Campagna

Appointed by Governor with Senate advice & consent: Florence Bailey; Marion A. Bell; Edward L. Blanton; Elizabeth Brownell; Patricia A. Hanges; Charles J. Kehoe; Joy Koletar; Pat McFaul; Donald Raynor; Katherine Tyler. Terms expire 1991.

With Senate advice and consent, the Governor appoints the Committee's twelve members. Authorization for the Committee continues until July 1, 1991 (Code 1957, Art. 83C, sec. 2-119.1).