YOUTH CENTERS

Robert H. Allen, Superintendent

Headquarters
326-328 Queen City Drive
Cumberland, MD 21501-1400 777-2162

The Juvenile Services Agency operates five Youth Centers in Western Maryland. Overseen by the Agency but privately operated are two new Youth Centers opened as 40-bed facilities in 1986. They are the Doncaster Youth Center at Doncaster, Charles County, and the Thomas R. O'Farrell Youth Center at Henryton, Carroll County.

Youth Centers serve older boys who are committed by various State courts and jurisdictions or who are transferred from the Charles H. Hickey, Jr. School (Chapter 370, Acts of 1955). Boys selected for transfer must be at least 15 and 1/2 years of age, in good physical health, and interested in an active outdoor work and living experience.

Each Center offers a work-study program. Students are required to attend a half day of school at the Center and work a half day either at the Center or in the community.

The present names for the first five Youth Centers (formerly known as Boys Forestry Camps) were approved by the Board of Public Works on September 20, 1977. The Centers are combined into a single administrative unit with one budget and one central business management unit located in Cumberland (Code 1957, Art. 83C, sec. 2-117).
