The Maryland Charter of 1632 empowered Lord Baltimore to raise troops to put down insurrection or rebellion and subdue enemies of the province. Since that time, the training, organization, maintenance, and administration of the Maryland Militia have been an integral part of State government. The present military establishment of Maryland conforms to Title 32 of the U.S. Code and regulations issued pursuant thereto, and to the Militia Law of Maryland (Code 1957, Art. 65).

The Adjutant General heads the Military Department and exercises powers and duties under the Militia Law of Maryland. The Military Department prepares all State forms and records required for militia use and the reports and returns required by the federal government. Service records of all officers and enlisted persons who have served or are serving in the Maryland National Guard are maintained by the Military Department as well.

The Adjutant General is responsible for the budget of the Military Department and is the custodian of all State and federal property used by the organized militia. The Adjutant General maintains all State-owned armories located in Maryland and all other properties that may be occupied, purchased, or leased by the Military Department. The Adjutant General regulates the use of such facilities; applications for their use should be made to the Adjutant General. In addition, the Adjutant General is responsible for the administration, training, and supply of approximately 9,500 National Guardsmen, including 1,519 full-time employees (253 State-paid; 1,266 federally paid).

As commander-in-chief of the militia, the Governor has the power to organize and maintain additional military forces, known as the Maryland State Guard, which are separate and distinct from the National Guard. Such forces are composed of officers, commissioned or assigned, and all able-bodied citizens of the State who volunteer and are accepted for service. They may be ordered to active duty in the State by the Governor whenever the National Guard has been called into the military service of the United States. Members of the State Guard are uniformed as prescribed by the Governor, who also may reduce or disband such forces.

The Adjutant General is appointed by the Governor with Senate advice and consent. The Assistant Adjutant General for Army and the Assistant Adjutant General for Air are both appointed by the Governor (Const., Art. IX, sec. 2).
