

to approval by the Board of Public Works, the Authority may hold an ownership interest in and operate a professional football or major league professional baseball team or team franchise, on a temporary basis, during a transition of the team or team franchise to private ownership.

The Authority is a public corporation of Maryland and may issue tax-exempt bonds for financing its operations. Proceeds from the sale of Authority bonds and revenues collected or received from any other source, including a tax on gate receipts at the facility, are deposited in the Maryland Stadium Authority Financing Fund. The Fund is a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of the Authority.

The Authority consists of five members appointed to four-year terms by the Governor with Senate advice and consent. The Governor designates the chairperson. With the approval of the Governor, the Authority appoints the Executive Director, who serves at its pleasure.

Authorization for the Authority continues until June 30, 1989. It expires then unless the Authority has entered into a long-term lease with the Baltimore Orioles or a professional football franchise (Code Financial Institutions Article, secs. 13-701 through 13-722).

The State House Trust was created in 1969 to oversee the area inside State Circle in Annapolis, including the State House. This oversight extends to the use of buildings and grounds and any exhibits on display there (Chapter 199, Acts of 1969). The Trust supervises all improvements, alterations, additions, landscaping, and repairs within that area.

The Trust consists of four ex officio members (or their designees) who serve as trustees. Members of the Trust may appoint from one to three nonvoting associate members who are qualified by experience and interest in historical preservation. The Trust retains an architect as a consultant (Code State Government Article, secs. 9-501 through 9-506).
