ORIGIN & FUNCTIONS

The office of the Comptroller of the Treasury was established in 1851. The Comptroller is elected by popular vote for a term of four years (Const., Art. VI, sec. 1). The number of terms a Comptroller may serve is not limited. The Comptroller must give a bond and keep the office at the seat of government. The Comptroller qualifies on the third Monday in January following election, but the qualifications to hold office are not stated either in the 1867 Constitution or in the Annotated Code of Maryland.

The Constitution enumerates the Comptroller's duties, beginning with the broad mandate to exercise "general superintendence over the fiscal affairs of the State, preparing plans for the improvement and
