

The humanities include such subjects as history, languages, literature, jurisprudence, ethics, philosophy, archaeology, linguistics, comparative religion, cultural anthropology, history and criticism of the arts, and aspects of the social and natural sciences that use historical or philosophical approaches. The humanities are concerned chiefly with ideas, the meanings of languages, and values. These bodies of knowledge differ from quantitative or value-free aspects of the social and natural sciences and the creation or performance of the fine arts.

The Maryland Juvenile Justice Advisory Council was established in 1984 as an independent unit within the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (Executive Order 01.01.1984.08). In 1987, the Council was placed under the Juvenile Services Agency (Executive Order 01.01.1987.21). The Council became part of the Governor's Office in 1988 (Executive Order 01.01.1988.01).

The Council advises the Governor, State agencies, and others on matters of juvenile delinquency and the administration of juvenile justice.

The Council is the designated State agency to receive formula grant funds under provisions of the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-415), as amended in 1976, 1977, 1980, 1984, and 1988. The Council's responsibilities include developing an annual plan for juvenile justice funds, establishing grant award procedures and practices, and monitoring these funds.

The Council consists of from fifteen to thirty-three members appointed by the Governor to three-year terms. The Governor designates the chairperson.

84 Franklin St.
Annapolis, MD 21401 974-2893

In September 1985, the Governor appointed the Maryland Coordinating Committee for the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday. The Committee develops commemorative and educational programs in tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (1929-1968). Dr. King led the civil rights movement which brought an end to the system of segregation in this country. He was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964.

The birthday of Dr. King, January 15th, has been observed as a State holiday in Maryland since 1975 (Chapter 440, Acts of 1974). Its observance as a national holiday began in 1986.
