

- 1967, June 21. Opening of Columbia, a planned community incorporating one-tenth of the land area of Howard County.
- 1967, July 25 Cambridge riots.
- 1967, Sept. 12-1968, Jan. 10. Constitutional Convention of 1967-1968.
- 1968, May 14 Proposed State Constitution rejected by voters.
- 1969, Oct. 5. Maryland Public Television first broadcast from Owings Mills (Channel 67).
- 1970, Spring. Student rebellion at University of Maryland, College Park.
- 1972, Nov. 7. First general election in Maryland where lowering of voting age to 18 years of age or older applied.
- 1973 Second parallel Chesapeake Bay Bridge opened.
- 1973 Urban "homesteading" begun in Baltimore. City sold abandoned houses for $1 each to buyers for renovation.
- 1974, Nov. 5. Both houses of General Assembly elected, for the first time, on the basis of equal representation by population.
- 1975, May Calvert Cliffs Nuclear Power Plant began operation.
- 1976 Maryland Science Center opened in Baltimore.
- 1976 Metro, the regional, rapid transit system for the national capital area, opened to link stations in Maryland with Washington, DC, and Virginia.
- 1980 Maryland and Virginia established Chesapeake Bay Commission to coordinate interstate legislative planning and programs to restore Bay resources.
- 1980, July 2 Harborplace, a 3-acre center of restaurants and shops, opened in Baltimore City, signaling the revitalization of Baltimore's Inner Harbor.
- 1981 National Aquarium opened in Baltimore.
- 1983, Dec. 9. Chesapeake Bay Agreement to improve water quality and living resources of the Bay signed by Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, District of Columbia, Chesapeake Bay Commission, and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.
- 1985 Pennsylvania joined Chesapeake Bay Commission.
- 1985, Nov. 24 Fort McHenry Tunnel opened.
- 1987, Dec. 14. Chesapeake Bay Agreement to restore and protect the Bay signed by Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, District of Columbia, Chesapeake Bay Commission, and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.
- 1992, April 6 Orioles Park at Camden Yards, the new stadium for the Baltimore Orioles baseball team, opened in downtown Baltimore City.
- 1992, May 18. Central Corridor Light Rail Line opened through Baltimore City.
- 1993, July 1 Interactive computer network, called "Advantage: Maryland" planned to link Maryland high schools and colleges by fiber-optic cable. First such network in the United States.
- 1993, Sept. 10 Chesapeake Bay Partnership Agreement, a partnership between State and local governments to reduce pollution in the Bay's tributaries by the year 2000, signed by Governor, Maryland's 23 counties, and Baltimore City.
- 1994, May The National Archives at College Park, Maryland, known as Archives II, scheduled to open.