
FIELD SERVICES DIVISION

Harry W. Langmead, Executive Director

321 Fallsway
Baltimore, MD 21202 (410) 333-1883

The Field Services Division originated as the Court Services Division. That former division was reorganized in 1988 as the Direct Care Services Division. In 1989, it was restructured as the Field Services Division.

The Division provides intake, probation and after-care services for delinquent youth. Through intake services, the Division decides for each juvenile whether court proceedings are appropriate. The Division also recommends to the court that adjudicated delinquents be placed on probation, in a day program, in a residential program, or committed to the Charles H. Hickey, Jr., School. The Division supervises delinquent youth during probation or placement and monitors them after their release from a residential facility or the Hickey School.

RESIDENTIAL SERVICES DIVISION

Phillip L. Colbert, Executive Director

321 Fallsway
Baltimore, MD 21202 (410) 333-3873

The Residential Services Division originated as the Institution and Detention Services Division, created in 1987. It became the Facilities and Residential Services Division in 1989 and was reorganized as the Residential Services Division in 1992.

The Division oversees supervision of Committed Programs, Detention Programs, Educational Services, and Health Services. This includes oversight of three community-based residences in Baltimore City, and five youth centers in Western Maryland for young people committed by the court. The Division also operates four detention centers and a community detention program for juveniles awaiting trial or disposition. In addition, the Division is responsible for transporting youth between court and State facilities.

COMMUNITY DETENTION

Hubert R. Jones, Supervisor
(410) 333-6215

For youth awaiting court trial or review, Community Detention provides an alternative to secure detention. Youths are able to remain in the community under intensive supervision, including daily surveillance by electronic monitoring devices.

STATEWIDE TRANSPORTATION

Vacancy, Manager
(410) 333-6869

The Department of Juvenile Services is responsible for transporting youth from the State facilities in which they reside to the courts and back again.

COMMITTED PROGRAMS

Rudy Adams, Administrator
(410) 333-6869

Committed Programs originated as Residential Programs and was reorganized under its present name in 1992. For youth committed by the court, residential programs in Baltimore City include the Maryland Youth Residence Center, and two group homes: Patterson House, and the William Donald Schaefer House. In Western Maryland, Committed Programs also is responsible for Youth Centers and the Washington County Holdover Facility.

MARYLAND YOUTH RESIDENCE CENTER

Samuel Lennon, Sr., Acting Director

721 Woodbourne Ave.
Baltimore, MD 21212 (410) 433-6041

The Maryland Youth Residence Center opened in 1972. Within a structured, nurturing environment, the Center provides boys, ages 8 to 14, with supervision; education; recreation; medical services; and individual, group and family counseling.

PATTERSON HOUSE

Barbara J. Rhodes, Supervisor

3810 West Rogers Ave.
Baltimore, MD 21215 (410) 433-6041

Patterson House, a group home for girls, started in 1968. It is a community-based residential program that offers counseling, supervision, education, recreation, and medical services for young women, ages 14 to 17.

WILLIAM DONALD SCHAEFER HOUSE

Charlotte P. Wainwright, Program Director

907-909 Druid Park Lake Drive
Baltimore, MD 21217 (410) 333-7152

Opened in 1972 as the Group Home for Boys, the Home was renamed for Governor William Donald Schaefer in April 1992. The House is a community-based residential program to prepare young men, ages 15 to 18, for independent living.

YOUTH CENTERS

Chester N. Bullard, Superintendent

Headquarters
326-328 Queen City Drive
Cumberland, MD 21501—1400 (301) 777-2400

The Department of Juvenile Services operates five Youth Centers in Western Maryland. Youth Centers serve older boys committed by various State courts and jurisdictions or transferred from the Charles H. Hickey, Jr., School (Chapter 370, Acts of 1955). Boys selected for transfer must be at least 15 and 1/2 years of age, in good physical
