

The J. DeWeese Carter Center is a maximum security detention center for ten boys and five girls. Opened in August 1982, the Center serves the nine counties of the Eastern Shore (Code 1957, Art. 83C, sec. 2-117). The Center was named for Judge J. DeWeese Carter (1904-1977), who served on the Court of Special Appeals from 1971 to 1973.

ALFRED D. NOYES CHILDREN'S CENTER

Ann E. Sentman, Superintendent

9925 Blackwell Road
Rockville, MD 20850 (410) 792-0865

The Alfred D. Noyes Children's Center was authorized in 1970 (Chapter 101, Acts of 1970; Chapter 179, Acts of 1972, as modified in the General Construction Loan Act of 1974). The Center was named for Alfred D. Noyes, who was the Judge for Juvenile Causes in Montgomery County at the time of the Center's creation.

Opened in September 1977, the Noyes Center is a regional detention facility for youths from Montgomery and Western Maryland counties. The Center offers secure temporary care for alleged or adjudicated delinquents. It has the capacity to serve thirty young people (Code 1957, Art. 83C, sec. 2-117).

THOMAS J. S. WAXTER CHILDREN'S CENTER

Vanessa L. Hatten, Superintendent

375 Red Clay Road, S.W.
Laurel, MD 20810 (410) 792-7416

Opened in November 1963, the Thomas J. S. Waxter Children's Center was first known as the Southern Maryland Children's Center (Chapter 38, Acts of 1962). The Center was renamed in 1963 to honor Thomas J. S. Waxter, who served as Director of the State Department of Public Welfare from 1953 until his death in 1962. (Chapter 131, Acts of 1963).

The Waxter Children's Center is a facility for juvenile detention and evaluation. Housing forty boys, the Center serves mainly Anne Arundel and Howard counties, and Baltimore City (Code 1957, Art. 83C, sec. 2-117).

EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

Charles F. Stewart, Superintendent of Education
(410) 333-6765

Educational Services administers and supervises academic, vocational and special education programs. The office also oversees contractual services and implements federal education programs.

HEALTH SERVICES

M. Anne Fox, Director
(410) 333-6768

Health Services provides clinical, managerial and administrative guidance to health services in Department facilities and programs.

DEFUNCT DEPARTMENTAL AGENCIES

ACCOUNTING SERVICES

Functions were consolidated under Budget and Finance in 1993.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DIVISION

Merged with the Program Services Division in 1992 to form the Administrative and Program Services Division.

ALLEGANY COUNTY HOLDOVER FACILITY

Closed in 1991 due to cost containment.

ARTHUR G. MURPHY, SR., YOUTH SERVICES CENTER

Closed in November 1991 due to cost containment.

BOYS' VILLAGE OF MARYLAND

Renamed Cheltenham Youth Facility in 1992 (Chapter 8, Acts of 1992).

BUDGET & AUDITING

Renamed Budget and Finance in 1993.

COMMUNITY SERVICES DIVISION

In 1992, functions of the Division were assigned to the Residential Services Division and the Administrative and Program Services Division

FACILITIES & RESIDENTIAL SERVICES DIVISION

The Division was reorganized in 1992 as the Residential Services Division.

GROUP HOME FOR BOYS

Under Committed Programs, renamed William Donald Schaefer House in 1992.

NONRESIDENTIAL MONITORING

In 1993, functions were combined to form Residential and Nonresidential Monitoring.

PROGRAM SERVICES DIVISION

Merged with the Administrative Services Division in 1992 to form the Administrative and Program Services Division.

RESEARCH & MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SERVICES

Renamed in 1993 as Information Services.

RESIDENTIAL & NONRESIDENTIAL MONITORING

Renamed Program Monitoring in July 1993.

RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS

In 1992, reorganized as Committed Programs under the Residential Services Division.