NEGATIVE—None.

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Sanner,

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill entitled an Act to regulate the manufacture and sale of oils for illuminating purposes.

Said bill being upon a second reading,

The question recurring upon the amendments submitted by Mr. Hammond as a substitute for the original bill,

Mr. Hammond submitted the following amendment :

At the end of section 1st, add the words, to be ascertained by the instrument adopted by the Petroleum Board of Trade.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Hammond submitted the following amendments :

Section 3, line 4, after the word "others," strike out all to the end of section, and insert: for such purposes shall forfeit said oil, which shall be declared confiscated, one-half to the informer and the remainder to the State.

Section 2, line 7, strike out the words "a less quantity than a barrel," and insert: five gallons or more, and strike out in 8th line, the words "if required."

Section 5, line 8, after the word "Act," insert: and selling the same for illuminating purposes, or who shall knowingly use for illuminating purposes, oils under test as hereinbefore provided.

Section 6. Be it enacted, That any oils confiscated in Baltimore city as provided for in this bill shall be tested by, or in presence of the Fire Inspector of Baltimore, appointed by the Insurance Companies of said city, and he shall decide the test of such oils.

Which were severally read and adopted.

And the bill, as amended, read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.
