Section 12, add at end thereof: except all dogs over ten years of age.

Which was rejected.

Mr. Baldwin, of Anne Arundel, submitted the following amendment :

Add the following as a new section, to take the place of section 13, and make section 13 read 14 :

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That any person who shall steal or kill a dog, except as provided for in the previous section, without permission of the owner, upon which the tax has been paid in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than twenty dollars, in addition to his common liability, to be recovered by an action of debt in the name of the County Commissioners, to be appropriated, one-half to said fund and the other half to the owner.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Ady submitted the following amendment :

Amend by adding the following after section 12, to read section 13 :

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That each household in this State shall be entitled to have one dog, which shall be free from taxation, anything in this law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Which was rejected.

The bill, as amended, was then read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Marbury,

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill entitled an Act to provide for maintaining and keeping in repair the public roads of Prince George's county.

Said bill being upon a second reading,

The bill was then read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Kirk, (the rules being suspended,)
