

Mr. Blake, Chairman of a Select Committee, submitted the following

REPORT.

To the Honorable,

The Senate, and House of Delegates:

The Joint Special Committee, appointed to control the appropriation of twenty-five thousand dollars, made by the two Houses for the purpose of furnishing the Governor's mansion, beg leave to report that they have discharged the trust committed to their hands. They have purchased what furniture they thought requisite for the Governor's mansion, and have left in the hands of the State Treasurer one thousand three hundred and forty-six dollars and seventy-three cents of the amount appropriated.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN C. PARKER,

Ch'n Senate Committee.

E. J. HENKLE,

DANIEL E. HENRY,

JOHN R. BLAKE,

Ch'n House Committee.

FENDALL MARBURY,

A. G. CHAPMAN.

Which was read and ordered to be printed.

The Secretary of the Senate returned the bill entitled an Act to repeal chapter 295, Act of Assembly, 1868, entitled an Act to amend Article 4, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Guano," by adding thereto the following sections relating to the inspection of all fertilizers other than guano, and to substitute the following sections relating to the inspection of all fertilizers other than guano, and to substitute the following in lieu thereof, endorsed "Passed by yeas and nays," with proposed amendments:

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Strike out all after the word "entitled," at the beginning of the first line of the title, and insert the following:

An Act to repeal an Act entitled an Act to amend Article 4, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Guano," by adding thereto the following sections relating to the inspection of all fertilizers other than guano, passed at January session, 1868, chapter 295, and to enact and add an additional Article to the Code of Public General Laws, to number 113, and titled "Manures and Fertilizers."

By the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Act entitled an Act to amend Article four, of the Code of Public
