

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Amend by repealing sections 3, 6, 7 and 8, of Article 98, of Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Wild Fowl," and to re-enact section 3, to read as follows:

No person shall at any time, shoot at, or shoot any water fowl, flying about their feeding grounds, or elsewhere over the waters aforesaid, from vessel, boat, float, canoe or craft of any kind contrary to the provisions of this Article; reserving, nevertheless, to the citizens of the State of Maryland, the right to shoot from sink-boats on Tuesdays and Fridays, and from batteau, canoe or other similar boat at pleasure, between the first day of November and the first day of April, but no sink-boat shall be used for shooting wild fowl, within one mile of the shore of the Chesapeake bay or any of its tributaries, and no person shall at any time shoot or shoot at wild fowl, between the hours of 7 P. M. and 5 A. M., during the season for shooting wild fowl, nor shall any person, under a penalty of one hundred dollars fine, and six months imprisonment, shoot at any wild fowl, with the use of lanterns, reflectors or lights of any kind whatsoever, or with the use of what is commonly called swivel, cannon or such character of gun, in the killing of ducks.

Be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize any one to shoot at any time from a sink or sneak-boats in St. Mary's, Charles, Queen Anne's, Calvert, Baltimore, Worcester and Harford counties, by day or by night.
