

benefit to the people; this the future alone can determine. We must await its verdict.

For myself, I have discharged my duties to the very best of my abilities. I have tried to be faithful to my trust. If I have rendered the State some service, then have I had my full reward. I now declare the House of Delegates adjourned sine die.

Attest:

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.