

the Comptroller, semi-annually, to said Academies respectively, the sums of money herein directed to be paid to them, commencing on the first day of April, eighteen hundred and seventy.

Which was adopted.

The sections as amended were then adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then read the second time.

Mr. Stephenson, from the Select Committee to whom was referred a House bill entitled an Act for the better protection of Partridges, Pheasants and Woodcock, in Harford county, reported it with the following amendments :

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

Amend section 1, by striking out the words "or Woodcock," where they occur at the end of the fourth, and beginning of the fifth line.

Amend section 7, by inserting the word "and," in the fourth line between the words "Pheasant and Partridges."

Amend title by striking out the words "and Woodcock," where they occur in the second line.

Amend the title further by inserting the word "and," between the words "Partridges and Woodcock."

Which were adopted.

The sections as amended were then adopted.

Said bill as amended was then read the second time.

Mr. Miller, from the Committee on Judicial Proceedings, to whom was referred the House bill entitled an Act to repeal section 50 of Article 5, of the Public General Laws, relating to appeals and to re-enact the same with amendments, and to add a section to said Article, reported it with the following amendments :

AMENDMENT 1ST.

Amend by inserting after the word "matter" in the seventh line of section 50, the following words : "And this section shall be construed to include all action of debt for the collection of fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by any law of this State, and which are made recoverable before a Justice of the Peace, in which a right of appeal may not be given by the law imposing the same.

AMENDMENT 2ND.

Amend by inserting after the word "appear" in the eighth line of section 50, the following words: On or before the second day of the term of the Court to which such appeal is taken.