The President announced a message from his Excellency, Governor Bowie, by the hands of R. C. Hollyday, Esq., Secretary of State.

On motion by Mr. Earle, and by unanimous consent,

Leave was granted to Mr. Earle to introduce a bill to secure payment from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company of the amount due from said Company to the State.

Mr. Earle, to whom the leave was granted, reported a bill entitled an Act to release and discharge the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, on certain conditions, from the payment into the Treasury of the State of Maryland of the one-
