

Said bill was then read the second time.

Mr. Carroll, from the Committee on Militia, reported a bill entitled an Act to repeal the Act of 1866, chapter 385, entitled an Act to provide for the payment of pensions to Maryland soldiers of the war of 1812, and widows of deceased soldiers of the war of 1812.

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Sellman, from the Select Committee to whom was referred House bill entitled an Act providing for the repairs of the public roads and bridges of Montgomery county, and to repeal a certain Act inconsistent therewith, reported it with the following amendments:

Amend in the 4th line, section 1, after the word "districts," by adding: and to alter the same from time to time.

Amend in the 6th line, section 3, after the word "the," the word ordinary.

Amend section 8th, 3d line, after the word "plows," add the following: and determine the number of hours that shall constitute a day's work, and cause the same to be entered upon the minutes of their proceedings, and to notify the supervisors thereof in writing.

Which were severally read and adopted.

Said bill, as amended, was then read the second time.

Mr. Sellman moved that said bill be read the third time this day.

The yeas and nays were called as required by section 27, of Article 3, of the Constitution, and appeared, as follows:
