Said bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Grove asked and obtained leave to withdraw the order offered by him in relation to the establishment of a Home of the Friendless in Easton.

The President laid before the Senate the following message from his Excellency, Governor Bowie:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Annapolis, March 24, 1870.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

I am constrained to return, without my signature, to the Senate, in which it originated, the bill entitled "An Act to amend Article 22, of the Code of Public Local Laws for Wicomico County," &c.

My objections to this bill are:

First—That the Constitution, Article 3, section 27, declares that "every law enacted by the General Assembly shall embrace but one subject, and that shall be described in its title." The title of this bill has no reference whatever to the most important and the objectionable part of it, which extends for a period of two years beyond the term for which they were elected, the term of the Commissioners of the town of Salisbury.

The failure to comply with this requirement of the Consti-
