Mr. Compton submitted the following amendment :

Amend by adding the following :

4th. Resolved further, That a sense of duty to our constituents, as well as of justice to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, requires of us the declaration, (which we hereby make) that we will levy no additional tax nor ask for any loan to supply any deficiency which may be or may occur in the Treasury of the State, because of the absence therefrom of any moneys justly due the State, and improperly withheld by the Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.
