

of Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Wild Fowl," and to re-enact section 3, to read as follows:

No person shall at any time, shoot at, or shoot any water fowl, flying about their feeding grounds, or elsewhere over the waters aforesaid, from vessel, boat, float, canoe, or craft of any kind contrary to the provisions of this Article; reserving, nevertheless, to the citizens of the State of Maryland, the right to shoot from sink-boats on Tuesdays and Fridays, and from batteau, canoe or other similar boat at pleasure, between the first day of November and the first day of April, but no sink-boat shall be used for shooting Wild Fowl, within one mile of the shore of the Chesapeake bay or any of its tributaries, and no person shall at any time shoot, or shoot at Wild Fowl, between the hours of 7 P. M. and 5 A. M., during the season for shooting Wild Fowl, nor shall any person, under a penalty of one hundred dollars fine, and six months imprisonment, shoot at any Wild Fowl, with the use of lanterns, reflectors, or lights of any kind whatsoever, or with the use of what is commonly called swivel, cannon, or such character of gun, in the killing of ducks.

Which was determined in the affirmative by yeas and nays, as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Biggs,
Carroll,
Clarke,
Earle,
Henry,
Hyland,
Jump,

Maddox,
Miller,
Parker,
Snyder,
Timmons,
Welch,
Wilson—14.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. President,
Fields,
Grove,

Sellman,
Spates—5.

Mr. Biggs, from the Select Committee, to whom was referred House bill entitled an Act to repeal sections 164, 165, 167 and 169, of the Act of 1868, chapter 87, entitled an Act to add additional sections to Article 11, of the Code of Public Local Laws, of Frederick county, relating to the powers and duties of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of Frederick city, to follow section 161, and to substitute the following in lieu thereof, reported it with the following amendment:

Section 169, strike out all from the word "vagrant," in the 16th line, to the end of the section.

Which was read and adopted.

The section, as amended, was then read and adopted.