

So two-thirds of all the Senators elected having voted in the affirmative.

Said bill was read the second time.

On motion by Mr. Clarke,

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the House bill entitled an Act to appropriate sixty-nine thousand two hundred and ninety-six dollars and twenty-eight cents to pay the various mechanics and others for work done and materials furnished in the erection of the Governor's mansion.

Said bill being upon the third reading,

Mr. Henkle submitted the following amendment:

Amend by adding the following section:

SECTION —. And be it further enacted, That the Comptroller is hereby required to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer in favor of William Black for thirteen thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven dollars and fifty-nine cents, in full of all claims against the State of Maryland, for the purchase of a lot and erection thereon of a stable and carriage house for the Executive Mansion, in Annapolis; provided, that no part of the money hereby appropriated shall be paid to the said Black until the Attorney General shall have certified to the Comptroller that he has made an examination of the title of said property, and has found the same properly vested in the State.

On the question being put,

It was determined in the negative, by yeas and nays, as follows:
