

EXECUTIVE PROCEEDINGS

Mr. Malone moved that the further consideration of said report be postponed.

Pending the consideration of said motion,

On motion by Earle,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Legislative business.

TUESDAY, Feb. 1, 1870, 8 o'clock, P. M.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the unfinished business of this morning, being the motion submitted by Senator Malone, to wit: to postpone the further consideration of the report submitted by the Committee on Executive nominations in relation to the nomination of John H. T. Magrude as State Librarian.

Mr. Malone withdrew his motion.

The question then recurred on the adoption of said report.

On the question being taken,

Will the Senate advise and consent to the said nomination?

It was determined in the affirmative.

On motion by Fields,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Legislative business.

THURSDAY, February 3, 1870.

The following communication which had been received from his Excellency, Governor Bowie, by the hands of R. C. Hollyday, Esq., was read.
