

Potomac Steamboat Company may issue them in such form as will enable the holder or holders thereof to convert and exchange each of said bonds into shares of the capital stock of the said Potomac Steamboat Company, at par, at such time prior to their maturity as may be stipulated for on the face of the bond, with or without the right to the holders of said stock to vote thereon, as the said Company may have determined at the time of the issue of said bonds, for which purpose the Potomac Steamboat Company are empowered to increase their capital stock to such an amount, not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as will enable them to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Vote.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Act entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Potomac Steamboat Company," passed March 9, 1850, with the amendments herein provided, be and the same is hereby continued in full force for the period of twenty-one years from the passage hereof, and no longer, and the Legislature hereby reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this Act at its pleasure.

Act continued

Approved February 19, 1870.

---

CHAPTER 39.

AN ACT to amend Section ten of Article fifty-one of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Justices of the Peace."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section ten, Article fifty-one, of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Justices of the Peace," be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Amended.

Sec. 10. If a Justice in Baltimore City dies, resigns, or is removed, the delivery of the docket and papers shall be made to the Clerk of the City Court within the time mentioned in the preceding Sections; and the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas is hereby required to transfer the dockets of Dockets of Justices.