

Fines. Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures under the ordinance of said corporation may be recovered as small debts are recoverable before any Justice of the Peace.

By-Laws. Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to make all such by-laws and regulations and ordinances, as shall not conflict with the laws and Constitution of the State of Maryland.

Limits. Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That they shall have power to establish the limits and width of the streets and alleys of the said village, and remove obstructions therefrom, and may, with the consent of one-half of the owners of the property through which they may pass, open new streets, lanes or alleys.

Damages. Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That they shall have power to provide for the payment of damages and expenses of opening, widening, laying out and grading the streets, lanes and alleys, in said village, by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable property of said town, or specially upon the assessable property of persons benefitted thereby.

Condemn by Jury. Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That if on the opening or laying out of any new street, lane, or alley, the said Commissioners cannot agree with the owner of any land or property wanted for the purposes, for the purchase, use or occupation of the same, application may be made to any Justice of the Peace for said county, who shall thereupon issue his warrant under his hand and seal directed to the Sheriff of said county, requiring him to summon a jury of twenty inhabitants of said county, who shall be freeholders, and not related to any of the parties, or in anywise interested, to meet on the land or near the property to be valued, on a day to be named in the warrant not less than ten, nor more than twenty days after issuing the warrant.

Oath. Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the Sheriff shall, before the jury proceed to act, administer to each an oath that he will justly and impartially value the damages; and if any of the jurors summoned do not attend, the Sheriff shall immediately sum-
