

Local Laws," under title "Caroline County," subtitle "Greensborough," be and the same are hereby enacted in lieu thereof.

Enacted in lieu.

98. The inhabitants of the village of Greensborough, in Caroline County, are a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Greensborough," and by that name may sue and be sued, may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said village and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure.

Body corporate.

Purchase and hold real property.

99. All property and funds of every kind belonging to or in possession of the village of Greensborough are vested in the said Corporation, and the said Corporation may receive in trust, and may control for the purpose of such trusts, all money or other property which may have been or shall be bestowed upon such Corporation by will, deed, or any other form of gift or conveyance in trust for any general Corporation purpose, or in aid of the indigent and poor, or for charitable purposes within said village; and the said Corporation may lease or otherwise dispose of any property now owned or which may be hereafter acquired by said village, having first given public notice of such lease or sale in one or more of the newspapers printed in Caroline County once a week for three successive weeks before such lease or sale.

Funds vested in corporation

May lease.

Public notice.

100. The bounds of Greensborough shall be as they have been, or may hereafter be fixed by the Commissioners of said village, not containing more than four hundred acres of land.

Bounds of village.

101. The citizens of Greensborough who have resided in said village for six months previous to the day of election, and who are qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly, shall, on the fourth Monday of April, annually, at such place as the Commissioners of said village shall appoint, elect by ballot five persons, residents and qualified voters of said village, Commissioners of Greensborough.

Qualified to vote.

Commissioners.

102. The Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be judges of such election, and the proceedings shall be recorded under their direction, and

Judges of election.