

every Commissioner, before he opens an election, shall make oath before a Justice of the Peace that he will faithfully and impartially permit every person to vote at such election who shall be qualified to vote for Commissioners of said village, and that he will not suffer any person to vote at such election who shall not be legally qualified to vote.

Legal voters.

103. If at any time an election shall not be had for Commissioners at the time mentioned in this article, an election may be held at any time after ten days' notice thereof shall have been given by the Commissioners or a majority of them.

Ten days
notice for an election.

104. If any vacancy shall occur by the death, resignation, removal or refusal to act of any one or more of the Commissioners elected as aforesaid, the remaining Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall elect a proper person to fill said vacancy.

Vacancy--how filled.

105. If at any election held under this article, two or more persons shall receive the same number of votes for Commissioner of said village, the judges of the said election shall, after having given five days' notice of the time and place, proceed to hold another election to fill up said Board of Commissioners, and the person or persons receiving the highest number of votes at said election shall, with those previously chosen, if any, constitute the Commissioners of Greensborough for the year ensuing.

Tie vote--
another election held.

106. Every Commissioner, before he proceeds to act as such, shall make oath before some Justice of the Peace for Caroline County that he will diligently and faithfully, according to the best of his skill and judgment, perform the duties of Commissioner without favor, partiality or prejudice, and a certificate of such qualification shall be returned by the said Justice to the Commissioners, to be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

Commissioners shall make oath.

107. The said Commissioners shall meet at such place as they may appoint within said village, on the second Monday of every month ensuing their election, and as much oftener by adjournment as they shall deem necessary.

Meetings by adjournment.