Bailiff to collect taxes.

Power of Bailiff to distress for non-payment.

117. Immediately upon the receipt by him of the book specified in the preceding section, the Bailiff shall proceed to collect all taxes levied by the said Commissioners, and shall pay over the same, whenever required so to do by the said Commissioners, to the treasurer of said corporation; and if any person shall neglect or refuse to pay said taxes, or shall neglect or refuse to pay any fines or forfeitures levied or imposed by the said Commissioners, the Bailiff shall proceed to collect said taxes, fines or forfeitures by distress or execution, as county taxes are collected; and in order to enforce the payment of said taxes, fines or forfeitures, the duties and powers imposed and conferred on the collectors of county taxes by the eighty-first Article of the Code of Public General Laws of this State, and its several supplements and amendments, are hereby imposed and conferred on said Bailiff in as full and ample manner as if the several provisions of the said eighty-first Article of the Code of Public General Laws and its supplements and amendments relating to the collection of county taxes, were herein expressly enacted.

Power of Commissioners.

Damages—how assessed.

118. The said Commissioners may pass such by-laws and ordinance as they shall deem necessary, for the good government of said village and the inhabitants thereof; for the removal of nuisances; to prevent swine and geese from going at large; and for the opening, extension, repairing, improvement and closing up of streets, lanes and alleys of said village, and all damages done, suffered or incurred by the opening, closing, extension, or improving said streets, lanes, or alleys, shall be determined and assessed by three disinterested persons, residents of said village, to be appointed by said Commissioners, who shall within twenty days after notification of their appointment, take an oath before a Justice of the Peace for Caroline County, that they will faithfully, fairly and without partiality or prejudice, value and assess the loss and damage to be suffered and incurred by
