

able and capable at law and in equity to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to hold, take and enjoy to them and their successors, for the use of said Central Chapel and Cemetery, any estate in lands and tenements, goods and chattels and effects, by gifts and grants, conveyance, devise or bequest of any person or persons whatsoever; provided, the whole of their property shall not at any one time exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and the same to use in any manner they may deem most beneficial to the said church and cemetery.

Powers.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Trustees and their successors may have, hold and enjoy the donations and purchases from Cordelia H. Downey, Benjamin Nelson, Henry Nelson and Dr. John S. Reese, heretofore made to the said church and cemetery, according to the true, intent and purpose of the same, and for the benefit of said church and cemetery.

Donations and purchases.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That an election, by ballot, for seven Trustees shall be held at Central Chapel some day between the first and tenth day of August next, and between the same days of the same month in each and every year thereafter, of which ten days notice shall be given by the Trustees, in such manner as they may direct, and that every legal voter who is a member of said Central Chapel Church, or who contributes to the support of the Gospel at said church, together with the heads of families burying in said cemetery, who have paid up their annual tax for the keeping up of said cemetery, shall be entitled to vote thereat.

Time of election.

Notice.

Qualification of voters.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That in case any of the said Trustees die, resign or refuse to act, or remove to a distance of five miles from said Central Chapel, the remaining Trustees shall fill up the vacancy or vacancies.

Vacancy—how filled.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if such annual elections for Trustees as herein provided should not take place, that the said Trustees under the appointment of this Act and their successors shall hold over until an election of successors, and shall enjoy any and all the powers with which they are hereby vested.

Officers hold over.