

Charles....., south thirty-one and three-quarter degrees east, fifty-six and forty-four hundredth perches, thence south seventy-two degrees east, seventy-seven perches to the corner of Frederick Fishack's garden, thence north seven and one-half degrees east, one hundred and eighty two perches, crossing the Raven Rock road near an angle or point of land belonging to Dr. E. T. Bishop, thence south sixty eight and one half degrees west, fifty-eight and sixty-four hundredth perches, thence north sixty-two degrees west, one hundred and twenty-five and twenty five hundredth perches, thence in a direct line with the aforementioned boundary of Clark's out lot and in a line with the first line south thirty-two and three-quarter degrees west, thirty-nine and twenty hundredth perches, to the place of beginning. And the taxable limits of said town shall include all that portion of said town now improved or which the citizens may improve hereafter.

Taxable limits.

May recover
penalties.

Commit in default of payment.

Unable to pay

312. And be it enacted, That all fines, penalties, and forfeitures, imposed by the ordinances imposed by the Burgess and Commissioners of said town, shall be recovered before the Burgess or any Justice of the Peace of Washington County, upon a warrant issued by him against the offender, directed to any constable of the county or of said corporation. And the said constable shall serve it under the same penalties as in cases of summons for small debts from a Justice of the Peace, and receive the same fees, to be paid by the corporation, and the person convicted, in default of payment, may be committed to the jail of the county, or an appropriate place of confinement within the corporation, provided by the Burgess and Commissioners, until such fine, penalty, forfeitures and costs be paid; but such person so convicted and imprisoned may be discharged after the space of ten days from the date of his commitment, upon satisfactory proof adduced before said Justice or Burgess, upon affidavit or oral testimony under oath that said person is wholly unable to pay said fine, penalty, forfeiture and cost. Provided, said fine, penalty, forfeiture and costs do not exceed five dollars, in which case said person so convicted and committed shall not be discharged until after the expiration of thirty days from the time of his com-