

CHAPTER 201.

AN ACT to repeal Sections three hundred and forty-five and three hundred and forty-six of Chapter eleven of the Public Local Laws of Frederick County, sub-title "Woodsboro," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

Repealed and Re-enacted. Section. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections three hundred and forty-five and three hundred and forty-six, of Chapter eleven, of the Public Local Laws of Frederick county be and the same are hereby repealed, and re-enacted to read as follows :

Security or imprisonment Appeal. 345. All fines and forfeitures for the violation of any of the ordinances of the said Corporation, if not paid on the rendering of the judgment of the Burgess, or the judgment of some Justice of the Peace residing within the corporate limits, or good security given for the same, shall subject the offender or offenders to imprisonment on commitment to the jail of Frederick County for not more than forty days, nor shall any fine imposed exceed twenty dollars for any one offence; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any person convicted before a Justice of the Peace, under the provisions of this section, of the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Frederick County.

How recovered. 346. All fines and forfeitures shall be recovered in the name and for the use of the Burgess and Commissioners of Woodsboro', and all commitments shall be signed by the Burgess, or a Justice of the Peace residing within the corporate limits.

In force. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1870.