

for the time may be held and occupied by the said Company under any charter, lease, or contract, and all advances made by the said Company, or by any of its authorized agents, on all goods, wares and merchandise in their possession or received by them on storage or in transit, and for which any order, receipt or bill of lading shall have been made to or endorsed over to the said Company with interest thereon as may be agreed upon together with the customary charges, commissions and all expenses incurred thereon, shall constitute and be a lien on all such goods, wares and merchandise, and should the same remain unpaid five days after any given time of payment, then the said Company may proceed to sell at public auction after giving ten days notice of the time and place of sale in two newspapers published in the City of Baltimore the said goods, wares and merchandise, or so much thereof as may be required to pay the amounts due thereon; and all goods, wares and merchandise, received on freight or storage which shall remain unclaimed for six months, may be sold, or so much thereof as may be required to pay all indebtedness thereon, at public auction, after giving twenty days notice of the time and place of sale in two newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, and all goods, wares and merchandise of a perishable nature, received on freight or storage, which shall be unclaimed and in a damaging condition, may be immediately sold at public auction after first having obtained the certificate of three disinterested merchants advising the sale as well as the time of advertising the same, and after deducting and paying all dues on the said perishable goods, wares and merchandise the balance received from the said sale shall be held subject to the order of the owner thereof, without further claim, or reclamation whatsoever against the said Company or its authorized agents.

Agents.

Lien.

Sale after notice.

Publish notice

Balance—how disposed of.

Annual meeting.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held in the city of Baltimore at such time and place as may be provided for in the by-laws of the said Company, when the President of the Board of Directors shall submit a yearly report from the various depart-