

Valuation—
how paid.

Continue to summon until decided.

second or any other inquisition which is confirmed by the Court, shall not award to the landowner a larger amount of damages than was awarded by the first inquisition, the Court may, in its discretion, order the costs of the said second, or other inquisition to be paid by the owner, or owners of said land or materials condemned, and the inquisition shall in all cases describe the property taken or the bound of the lands condemned, and the quality or duration of the interest in the same, valued for the Company; and such valuation when paid, or tendered to the owner or owners of the property, his, her or their legal representatives shall entitle the said Company to the estate and interest in the same thus valued, as if it had been legally conveyed by the owner or owners of the same; and the valuation if not received when tendered may at any time thereafter be received without costs from said Company, by the owner or owners, his, her or their legal representatives, and the Sheriff shall keep the said jury together for a reasonable time, until they shall agree upon and sign and seal the said inquisition; and in case it shall so happen that the jury cannot agree after being kept together as aforesaid, the Sheriff may in his discretion, discharge the said jury, and without any further warrant from a Justice of the Peace, shall within five days thereafter, summon another jury of twenty inhabitants, as aforesaid, not upon the former jury and the same proceedings shall be had in all respects as is hereinbefore provided; and in case of a second, or other disagreement of the jury the same proceedings shall be had until a verdict or inquisition shall be made and returned as aforesaid.

Obligations as
to roads

Sec. 13 And be it enacted, That the obligations of said Company in reference to the providing of proper roads and wagon ways shall be the same as those imposed upon the Western Maryland Railroad Company and the individuals injured shall be entitled to the like remedy for the non-compliance of said Company with such obligations.

Dividends.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That the said President and Directors may declare dividends of the net profits at such times as they may deem best.