CHAPTER 228.

AN ACT to divert a certain sum of money in the hands of Commissioners to the Board of School Commissioners of Dorchester County, for the use of the Public Schools in said county.

Choptank Indian lands. WHEREAS, By an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January Session, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, Chapter one hundred and twenty-five, Thomas J. Dail, James A. Waddell and John L. Willis, of Dorchester County, were appointed Commissioners to sell a small reservation of the Choptank Indian Lands, situated in Dorchester County, and were directed to retain the proceeds of sale, to be disposed of by some future Act of the General Assembly for the purpose of education in Dorchester County; and it having been represented to the General Assembly that the said real estate has been sold for the sum of six hundred and ninety-five dollars, and the amount is now in the hands of the said Commissioners, awaiting the order of the General Assembly, therefore,
