

Owner of a shore so responsible. Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That any owner of a shore so selling shall be responsible for the excess of such sale over the sum of twenty-five cents (25) for each log sold, and the cost of the aforesaid advertisements and sale.

Additional compensation. Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to deny to the owner of any shore a right to an additional compensation for special damages, such as the destruction of fences, the lodging of logs upon cultivated fields, or other similar injuries.

Penalty for removing. Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That any person removing logs from a shore without complying with the provisions of this Act, shall be fined not less than fifty (50) or more than one hundred (100) dollars, one-half of which shall be paid to the informer; provided such removal shall be effected before said logs have been advertised according to the second Section of this Act.

Guilty of misdemeanor. Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That any person or persons so removing said logs, after they have been advertised for sale as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in a sum not less than (50) nor more than one hundred (100) dollars, or imprisoned in the jail of the county in which said misdemeanor may be committed for a term not less than three nor more than twelve months, or both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the Court before which such misdemeanor may be tried.

Inconsistent repealed. Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed.

In force. Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1870.
