

payment of said assessment ; upon default in the payment of any sum due on any subscriptions and thirty days after written notice of such default shall have been addressed to the subscriber at his usual place of abode or business through the post-office, the stock on which the said sum shall then be due, shall be and become forfeited to the corporation, and may be sold by the Board of Directors for the benefit of the said corporation, or the corporation may by suit, as in case of the other debts, recover the installment or installments ; the Board of Directors shall have power to receive payment for the whole or any part of any subscription in land, timber or money ; and if in land or timber, then at such price valuation or terms as may be agreed by the subscriber and the Board of Directors or their appointed agents.

Failure to pay

May recover.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That when the said corporation shall have completed their main line between the points named in section first, they shall then extend the said main line to intersect the Western Maryland Railroad at or near the city of Westminster, and for the purpose of said extension they may increase their capital stock to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and they shall have power to construct, maintain and work their main line with said extension, and also branches or lateral roads not exceeding five miles in length.

Main line to connect.

Increase capital.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That for transportation on its railroads or branches, or any part thereof, the said corporation shall have a right to charge and collect as toll and transportation charges at rates not exceeding six cents per ton of property, or five cents per passenger for each and every mile of transportation, but for any distance twenty-five cents may be charged for a passenger, or for any quantity of freight.

Rates of toll.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That the said Railroad and branches may be constructed with as many sets of tracks as the corporation shall deem proper, and the corporation may construct and maintain all bridges, wharves and other structures and works which it shall deem necessary for the purposes of its incorporation, but the land which it shall have the right to acquire for the construc-

Construct and acquire.