

Convey pipes
through street

squares of said town as they may think proper, and may grant to all persons and corporate bodies the privilege of using said water in such manner and upon such terms, and in such quantities as they may think proper; they may insert and repair, at the expense of the town, such number of fire-plugs as they may deem necessary into the pipes used to convey water through the streets of said town, to be used only in case of fire, but free from any charge therefor; they may convey said water in such manner and by such route as they may deem proper, and they may appropriate such and so much land as may be necessary and proper or the location and construction of any work or building appurtenant to said water works, and any spring that may be necessary for furnishing a full supply of water by furnishing a hydrant for the use of any tenement or dwelling that had previously been supplied from said spring.

Compensation
for property
taken.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if compensation shall be required by any person whose rights may be affected by the conveyance of said water or the appropriation of land or springs, and such person shall not be able to agree with said corporation upon the amount of such compensation, or if the owners or any of them be feme covert, under age, non compos mentis, or out of the county, application may be made to any Justice of the Peace for Washington county, who shall thereupon issue his summons under his hand and seal, directed to the Sheriff of said county, requiring him to summon a jury of twenty inhabitants of said county not interested in the property to be valued, to meet on the land or near the other property, to be valued on a day named in said summons, not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the issuing of the same, and if at the time named in said summons any of said jurors summoned do not attend, the Sheriff shall immediately summon as many jurors as may be necessary, with the jurors in attendance, and from them each party or his agent, or if either be not present in person or by agent, the Sheriff for him may strike off four jurors, and the remaining jurors shall act as the jury of inquest of damages, and the Sheriff shall, before the said jury shall act, administer to each of them an oath that

Sheriff to summon jury.